The Function Metrics report lists, sorts, compares and ranks all the functions by their software metrics.

The function metrics include a wide range of measures of the size, complexity, and usage of each function.

User specifiable thresholds for each metric determine the color used in displaying the values.