The Calculation Tree analyzes the data flow related to a specific variable.

The flow of assignments is tracked across function boundaries.

The Assignment Flow view shows the sequence of assignments leading to a variable's value.

Details about the focus (red) assignment are shown, as you click around the graph.