The Calculation Tree analyzes the data flow related to a specific variable.

Details about the focus (red) variable or function are shown as you click around the graph.

The Variable Dependencies view shows the variables and functions which contribute to a variable's value.

All instances of the variable being set are listed.